Version April 2012

Table of contents

§ 1	General	§ 5	Description of tests
§ 2	Preparation time for colour belt tests (KUP)
§ 3	Preparation time for black belt tests (DAN)	§ 6	Program for colour belt tests (KUP)
§ 4	Other requirements for tests	§ 7	Program for black belt tests (DAN)

§ 1 General

As per these regulations tests are required to be promoted to the next belt.

The aim of these regulations is to establish uniformity for all tests.

The first part of the test evaluates the performance of Tul. If there is a mistake, the student can perform the Tul once again.

Breaking tests are evaluated by the examiner according to the age of the candidate.

If the test's candidate shows undisciplined attitude in any form, before or during the test, towards the examiner or the committee, the instructor and/or the committee may decide to exclude such candidate from their participation in tests.

§ 2 Preparation time for colour belt tests (KUP)

The required preparation time between KUP-exams is showed in the table here below. This time represents the minimum time required to test for the next belt.

Test	Minimum preparation time
9. Kup	2 Months
8. Kup	2 Months
7. Kup	3 Months
6. Kup	3 Months
5. Kup	3 Months
4. Kup	3 Months
3. Kup	3 Months
2. Kup	3 Months
1. Kup	3 Months

Between the tests from 1° Kup to 1° Dan, there must be enough time to develop the maturity of the candidate.

§ 3 Preparation time for black belt tests (DAN)

Preparation time between the black belt tests (in compliance with the Bylaws of ITF) is as follows:

Degree	Preparation time in years
I. Dan	1
II. Dan	1,5
III. Dan	2
IV. Dan	3 (the candidate must have at least the age of 21 years)
